

IT POLICY

RBVRR Women's College provides to all faculty, students and staff with a modern, fully networked computing and IT environment for academic use. The College expects all the users to take the appropriate measures for the efficient, economical and ethical use of all the IT resources.

1. Faculty, staff and students shall use the computing and IT facilities only for academic and official purpose.
2. Users are expected to respect the privacy of other users and they may not allow any other person to use their password or share their account. Sharing of passwords is strictly prohibited.
3. Downloading and installing of new software has to be done with the consent of the Principal and HODs. Installation of unlicensed software on college facilities, is not permissible.
4. Recreational downloads and peer to peer connections for recreational purposes are not allowed unless it is academic requirement.
5. To the extent possible, users are expected to connect only to the official RBVRR Women's College Wi-Fi network for wireless access.

6. Users are expected to take proper care of network equipment, and are expected to report any malfunction to the staff on duty or to the in-charge of the facility
7. Playing Games in college laboratories or using College facilities for same is strictly prohibited.
8. Unnecessary downloads from Internet, sharing account details with outsiders, using personal account to do outside work are not allowed.
9. Users will not attempt to override or break the security of the University computers, networks, or machines/networks accessible therefrom.

